Morning Sermon: A Father to Brag On | Proverbs 17:6

6 PM Preview: Alex preaches tonight. Join us!

Joe's Jots

New Series. Our Sunday morning sermon series on the church called "Restore" will continue next week. These important lessons are all about how we can become the church of God's intent, how we can "exemplify the church as it should be, today and tomorrow." Here's the line-up:

June 24	The Church's Authority
July 1	The Church's Teaching on Salvation
July 8	The Church's Mission
July 15	The Church's Relationships
July 22	The Church's Leadership
July 29	The Church's Worship
August 5	The Church's Lifestyle

Vacation Bible School. Below are a very few snapshots from our wonderful VBS last week. By any measurement, it was a success. We had an increasing number of kids with each night. The nightly adult class was well-attended. Our youth group students worked hard putting on plays and serving in classrooms. All over our building, kids were learning about God's Word, enjoying fellowship with Christian friends, and having loads of fun. It takes a big team to pull off a great VBS, and we were blessed with excellent involvement, but we should all be grateful for the leadership Alex and Alison provided in pulling our team together. I'm already excited about the opportunity to teach kids about Jesus next year!

Thank You Notes

The family of Margaret McClain wishes to extend a heartfelt thank you for the calls, visits, cards and prayers during the extended illness and passing of mom. Even though she was unable to attend church for the past few years due to her failing health, she still spoke fondly of church and the wonderful people there. She loved her friends there very much. Thank you to the kind ladies for the wonderful meal after her funeral service and for helping us package up food to take to dad since he was ill and unable to come to the meal. There was much hard work that went into the food preparation and serving as well as cleaning. Everything was wonderful and greatly appreciated. There was so much food, we were able to share with two other families on hospice. You not only blessed us but others as well. Thank you from the bottom of our hearts for everything.

In Christian love,
The Family of Margaret McClain

I want to express my gratitude for your fellowship on Friends and Family Day. It was a great privilege to worship with you! The singing and common faith and love was wonderful to be a part of! The fellowship meal was also amazing! (Y'all have some wonderful cooks.) And I want to also thank you for allowing me to speak from God's Word and study the Scriptures with you in the second service! Thank you again for everything and I look forward to being among you again.

In Him,
Ben Coleman
