Joe's Jots

A Look Back and Ahead. Can you believe it's the final day of the year? Like every other year, 2017 included heartaches and triumphs, losses to mourn and successes to celebrate. In many ways, our church family experienced a great year. We will complete our year-long One Word study this week. We said goodbye to a few beloved saints, said hello to some precious newborns, and congratulated some couples who got married. We welcomed several new families into our midst and rejoiced over some baptisms. My first few Sunday morning sermons of 2018 will reflect on the year that has passed and set some goals for the year that is ahead. Here's a preview:

January 7: "For the Love" (Ephesians 3:14-19)

Love isn't the only important theme in the Scriptures, but it is the most important. We'll start the year talking about how vital it is that we are "rooted and grounded in love."

January 14: "Looking Up"

For many years, our logo has featured the tagline "Looking Up, Reaching Out, Growing Together." I'm going to spend three weeks looking at these three phrases in order to set some church family goals for 2018. First, we'll talk about "looking up" in reverence and awe to our God.

January 21: "Reaching Out"

We'll be reminded that our purpose is to reach out with the good news of Jesus Christ so that the lost can be saved.

January 28: "Growing Together"

We're called to grow together in the grace and knowledge of our Lord!
