Joe's Jots

Fall All-In-One. This special Sunday is next week! Who will you invite to join us? We are asking you to bring two things next Sunday: food and a friend (or family member or neighbor or co-worker)! Our speaker will be Craig Evans, preacher at the Spring Hill Church of Christ in Spring Hill, TN. Here's the schedule for the day:

9 AM	Combined Adult Bible Class in Auditorium "Did Jesus Really Mean I Must Forgive 70 x 7 Times?"
10 AM	Worship "What God Knows About You," Isaiah 40:28
11:15 PM	Fellowship Meal in Vanzant Center
12:15 PM	Afternoon Devotional

Trunk or Treat was again a great success. We hosted many visitors and it appeared everyone enjoyed their experience. Thank you to everyone who brought candy, decorated their trunk, provided food, worked in the kitchen, helped clean up, and warmly welcomed visitors. Pray that God will use events like our Trunk or Treat to draw people into a relationship with Him. And pray that He will use us as instruments in that process!

Special Announcement. In two weeks, we'll be sharing some special news that will affect our entire church family in 2017. No need to be concerned—it's good news that I'm very excited about! Stay tuned!

Grateful. Thanksgiving will help to wrap up the month of November making this a perfect time of year to count our blessings. I've seen many helpful practices that can keep us grateful. Lauren put up a poster board in our dining room a few days ago. Each member of our family (except Avery) is writing a blessing on it every day of November. Some use Facebook to share something they're thankful for each day of this month. Have you decided to consider your blessings during this season? What are you doing to stay grateful? Cultivating gratitude is one of the best ways to battle against discouragement and discontentment. As the Psalmist declares, "Give thanks to the Lord!"
