Thank You Notes

I'm grateful to be a part of your team. Thank you for your generous support. I plan on sending you a final report for the year. I just wanted you to know on this Thanksgiving weekend how thankful I am for you. My feelings are expressed in Romans 1:8: "I thank my God through Jesus Christ for all of you."

My Love and Appreciation, Keith Parker

Thank you so much for the use of your beautiful fellowship hall for the health seminar we hosted. Also, thanks to each of you who attended from your church. May God bless each of you!

Sincerely, Glenda Goennier & Kandi Weaver

Thank you to everyone who planned and prepared the Senior Saints Thanksgiving meal. We were all blessed by your kindness and the time we could spend together!

With Love, Dolores Manning

Joe's Jots

Radical. Sometimes the most ordinary aspects of the Christian life are the most challenging. I love this quote from writer Tish Harrison Warren: "I'm a thirty-something with two kids living a more or less ordinary life. And what I'm slowly realizing is that, for me, being in the house all day with a baby and a two-year-old is a lot more scary and a lot harder than being in a war-torn African village. What I need courage for is the ordinary, the daily every-dayness of life. Caring for a homeless kid is a lot more thrilling to me than listening well to the people in my home. Giving away clothes and seeking out edgy Christian communities requires less of me than being kind to my husband on an average Wednesday morning or calling my mother back when I don't feel like it." In the week ahead, may God give you the strength required to be an ordinary radical. May He help you do the small, everyday things faithfully and well.
