Joe's Jots

Ministry. It's remarkable how many church activities happened last weekend...

- Several ladies enjoyed fellowship while working on crafts Saturday.
- A delicious meal was prepared and served to the family of Ronnie Lewis after his funeral service.
- The 20-Somethings class enjoyed fun and fellowship at a cookout at our house.
- New members were welcomed and honored at a special Sunday luncheon planned by Kevin Caroland and Kyle Ashby.
- The youth group travelled to the Owl Hollow church for Connect, a series of area-wide gatherings held on Sunday nights.
- The 60s-70s Sunday school class held a farewell reception for Wayne and Billie Simpson.

I've said it many times, and I'll say it again: I'm very thankful to be part of an active congregation involved in so many fruitful ministries!

Faith at Home. From Wes McAdams: "Our homes are the primary place we 'work out our salvation.' They are the proving ground for our faith and transformation. Our families are on the front lines of our battle against the flesh. Spouses and children know the true genuineness of our walk with Christ. Generations yet unborn will be affected by whether or not we walk by the Spirit, as we walk with our families."

Home Again. I am in Chattanooga this morning—I have the privilege of preaching today for the congregation where I was raised, the Red Bank Church of Christ. I look forward to being back with my Winchester family next Sunday!
