VBS Recap. I know you can't see clearly any of the faces in the photograph above, but I hope this gives you a sense of the number of kids impacted by and people involved in pulling off VBS. We had a fantastic week of singing and playing and learning more about God's Word. A huge thank you goes to Alex & Alison for coordinating VBS, and to all the grown-ups and teenagers who work hard to make it great. It is highly encouraging to see so many of our folks band together to help many kiddos grow in their faith. Praise God for this wonderful week!

Keith Parker Report

The month of May took me to 3 churches in TN and to a church in West Virginia. There were 9 responses for prayer. Please accept our thanks for being participants in our efforts. It sure is helpful to know that at the first of the month some money is going to be deposited into our account. Also, thank you for your prayers. The greatest gift that one can give another is the gift of prayer.

Our Love & Appreciation,
Keith, Sandra & Pete Parker

Recife, Brazil Report

I hope this report finds you and the church doing well. Kathy and I are fine and finally maskless in Brazil. The work also continues to thrive. We are thankful to God for all of those studying God's Word with us and as well those studying to spread his Word at our ministry training school. Thank you for your continued support and prayers for the work in Recife.

Blessings,
Randy Short
