Welcome to Worship! November 22, 2020

Today's Sermon: I Can Do All Things | Philippians 4:10-13

From the Elders

As we observe a rise in COVID cases within our county and beyond, we want to remind our church family to stay safe and take the precautions you deem necessary. We don't need to get lax about this virus but instead do everything we can to take care of our brothers and sisters. "Beloved, I pray that all may go well with you and that you may be in good health, as it goes well with your soul" (3 John 2).

Joe's Jots

A Look Back. Last Sunday was an uplifting day of worship and fellowship. We were blessed to hear from Bill Watkins in our worship hour and in the adult Bible class. He gave two inspiring lessons. I jotted this line down from his sermon: "The difference between feeling like a victim and a victor is the voice you're listening to. Are you listening to the news more than the voice of God?" On Sunday afternoon, over 30 of us participated in another Stop and Sing. We sang to and visited from a distance with Margaret Custer, Dovie Davenport, and Ken Farris. I hope these three felt as encouraged as we did! This season has been difficult for many of our senior saints. Let's not forget them.

SpaceX Launch. I watched in amazement last Sunday as four NASA astronauts were launched into space aboard the Crew Dragon spacecraft. Then I read in an interesting article in The Christian Chronicle that one of those astronauts, Victor Glover, is a member of a Houston-area Church of Christ! The newspaper stated that online worship during the pandemic has prepared Glover for his long stay on the International Space Station. "I actually sent up communion cups and a Bible, and we have really good internet connectivity," Glover said. "I will probably continue in what we've been doing: virtual service, virtual giving, reading my Bible and praying."
