Today's Sermon: "More Than Enough" (2 Corinthians 9:6-9)

Joe's Jots

Unity Service. Wow! It's impossible to come up with enough superlatives to describe last Sunday evening when 600 Christians from our county gathered at our building. Powerful, uplifting, encouraging, and inspiring are all words I've used to describe it throughout last week. The comments I've heard about it have been overwhelmingly positive. Many have said we need to do this kind of thing more often. Someone said it gave her the feeling of belonging to something much bigger than her little congregation. Someone else said he was amazed at how many people he saw that he knew yet had not realized they were his brothers and sisters. Someone else said the service brought back great memories of singings and lectureships of days gone by and that he saw people he hadn't seen in 20 years. Someone else said he had his faith renewed that the church in our county can accomplish great things when we work together. And almost everyone has commented on the glorious singing! Thanks to all of you who brought food, set up the Vanzant center, and helped clean up. The night was a big win for the Kingdom and a huge loss for Satan.

Trunk or Treat is tonight! We'll meet in the auditorium at 6 PM. This will be followed by our Trunk or Treat and chili supper at 6:30 PM. It's not too late to sign up to bring food, help in the kitchen, or decorate your trunk. You can do that on your way out of worship today! Let's be sure to leave the upper parking lot behind the school open for cars with decorated trunks only. And let's be sure we come tonight ready to make all our visitors feel welcome here. Thanks in advance for your help!

Sympathy

Sympathy is extended to the family of Martha Stewart who passed away last week. Martha was a long time member of this congregation. Her funeral service was held on Friday.

Thank You

Thank you for the many donations made in the memory of my father, Earl Sims. Also, thank you for the prayers and concern during his illness and death. We were so very blessed to have had him for so long in our lives. Please continue prayers for my mother.

Darnell Day and the family of Earl Sims

I would like to take this opportunity to express my gratitude for all the support that everyone has shown me during the past few weeks with the passing of my grandfather and my recent personal illness. Your prayers, calls, flowers, and cards were so much appreciated. Thank you.
