Joe's Jots

Daniel & Katie Ross. We shared the exciting news last week that Daniel Ross has been hired as our Youth & Family Minister. Our elders have been praying and looking for a new minister since Alex announced late last year that he would be moving into full-time counseling. We believe God is blessing us with an exceptional couple to work with our young people and families here. Daniel and his wife Katie will be starting with us in late June, just in time for Revive Camp at Ney-a-ti. Let's be praying for our church family during this exciting time of transition!

Isaiah 117 House. From time to time, we collect items for the Isaiah 117 House, which is a facility that cares for children awaiting foster placement from Franklin, Coffee & Grundy counties. Through the end of May, we'll be collecting the following items in bins in the main lobby: pajamas, socks & underwear in all sizes, large duffle bags, and gift cards (to Amazon, Walmart, Old Navy, Pizza Hut, McDonalds, Wendy's, Hardees, Sonic, Subway, and Mountain Goat Market). Thanks in advance for your help! For questions, see David Cowan.

Vacation Bible School will be June 12-15! Think about friends and neighbors you can invite. Our theme is "Blast Off" and we'll be exploring how the image of light is used in the Bible to tell the story of God and his people. We'll talk about creation, God's promise to Abraham, the star of Bethlehem at Jesus' birth, and how we are to be the light of the world. Our program is for 2 year-olds through incoming 5th graders. Our 6th-12th graders will be recruited to serve in various ways. And a nightly adult class will be offered. Don't miss out!

We extend sympathy to Iva Sue Huffman on the loss of her son-in-law, Earl Leech. A memorial service will be held this afternoon (May 22) at 2:30 PM at the Highland Hills Church of Christ in Tullahoma.

Thank You Note

Thank you for your gracious and kind spirits, for your words of encouragement, and for your willingness to meet the needs of our son's family. Bart died of a massive heart attack Saturday morning, May 7, upon returning from a business trip to Denver, CO. His wishes were to be buried alongside his grandmother Floy in Maxwell Cemetery. He was devoted to God, his wife Ginny, and his children, Marianna & Elena. He served the church at Clear Creek in Chattanooga as an elder. Please pray for them.
