AM Sermon: A Way Out of No Way | Mark 6:30-34

Later Today: Devotional on Facebook This Afternoon at 3 PM

Joe's Jots

Wednesday Nights. A special series of Wednesday night lessons with Lonnie Jones is underway! He will be with us the next two Wednesdays at 7 PM to continue talking about "The Christian and Mental Illness." Lonnie is teaching in the auditorium and overflow spaces (including Room 216 for those who prefer to wear masks) will be available. A kids program for 4 year-olds thru 5th graders will be offered in the fellowship room. Also, videos of the lessons will be shared on our website, YouTube channel, and Facebook page on Thursdays at 7 PM for anyone not able to join us in person. We hope you will participate in this special series!

Humble and Lowly. I love these words from Dallas Willard about the way our Savior entered our world: "He slipped into our world through the backroads and outlying districts of one of the least important places on earth and has allowed his program for human history to unfold ever so slowly through the centuries. He lived for thirty years among socially insignificant members of a negligible nation—though one with a rich tradition of divine covenant and interaction. He grew up in the home of the carpenter for the little Middle-Eastern village of Nazareth. After his father, Joseph, died, he became the 'man of the house' and helped his mother raise the rest of the family. He was an ordinary workman: a 'blue-collar' worker. He did all this to be with us, to be one of us, to 'arrange for the delivery' of his life to us" (The Divine Conspiracy, 13-14). Despite his ordinariness, Jesus has been the central figure in human history for two millennia and He remains so today. This is evidence that indeed He was and is the Son of God. His earthly ministry in backwater towns and villages reminds us that we can be used by God in meaningful ways right where we are. We don't need to be famous, we don't need to live in culturally significant places, we don't have to mix it up with powerful people. We need only to allow God to use us to declare the gospel of Jesus where we've been planted. We serve a humble and lowly Savior who calls us to humble, lowly service.

Assembly News

On Sundays, you may continue to sit on any pew you’d like in the auditorium, provided it’s not taped off. We ask that those who arrive first sit in the middle of the rows to allow for easier spacing. Ushers will help fill in vacant spots before sending folks to overflow seating in the gym. Room 214 is available for families with young children. Room 216 is available as an overflow room where masks are required. Those who choose to sit in Room 216 will be able to enter and exit through the Vanzant Center lobby.

The Sunday sermon will continue to be posted to YouTube, Facebook, and our website on Sunday afternoon at 4 PM. Sermons will continue to air on WCDT each week on Sundays at 10 AM.
