Joe's Jots

A Welcome Lunch for Daniel & Katie Ross is TODAY! After our worship, we'll head to Bible classes, and then immediately to the Vanzant Center to enjoy lunch together. The meal is completely catered. Also, a money tree will be provided if you'd like to help them in that way. Let's show Daniel and Katie how excited we are to have them here!

Ukraine Support. Over and above the church funds that we sent to help Ukrainian Christians, you contributed an additional $5,446. I am always impressed and inspired by your generosity. This extra amount was sent to the Winfield Church of Christ in Alabama. Mark Posey is a minister there, and he's deeply involved with several congregations in Ukraine. Let's continue to pray for all Ukrainians, especially fellow believers there, as the terrible war drags on.

A Message from Keith Parker. "As you probably know, our son Pete has cancer. Please pray. We need prayer warriors at this time. June took me to 3 different congregations in Tennessee, 1 in Alabama, and 1 in Mississippi. Collectively, there were 3 baptisms and 11 responses for prayer. To God be the praise for any good that came! Thank you for helping me preach the gospel!"

Quotable. "Staying home to 'watch church' is like staying home from a friend's wedding to watch the ceremony virtually. And keeping your wedding gift with you. Your presence and solidarity and love and hugs and eye contact and singing are needed. It's not just about passively receiving something. It's about being an embodied part of the celebration. The whole event is diminished by your absence. And you have a gift to give." -Dane Ortlund

Wednesday Nights @ 7 PM. All adults are meeting in the auditorium through mid-August for a series called "Living Like Jesus." Join us on Wednesdays this summer!
