 6 PM Preview: Youth-Led Worship

Joe's Jots

Wednesdays. Here's a preview for the next few Wednesdays. This week, on November 23, all children, teens, and adults will meet in the auditorium at 7 PM for a special Thanksgiving Eve devotional. We hope you'll join us for this! On Wednesday, November 30, I'll close out my Wednesdays in the Psalms series. Then, on Wednesday, December 7, a new quarter will begin for children, teens, and adults. We'll have two adult offerings. You can begin signing up for one of these today on the tables in the lobby! Dan Walker will be teaching a class called A Heart for God. Through exploring insights from King David's life, this class will challenge believers to examine their hearts and fortify their commitment to God. I will be teaching a class called The Messiah on the Move. This will be a verse-by-verse study of my favorite gospel, the action-packed, fast-paced Mark. Join us on Wednesdays this winter!

Thanksgiving. Later this week, we will gather with family and friends to enjoy a feast and reflect on our many blessings. I'm thankful to live in a country in which Thanksgiving is a national holiday! However, Christian gratitude is more expansive than the general gratitude that characterizes modern Thanksgiving celebrations. For starters, Thanksgiving should be a way of life for the believer, not a sentiment reserved for one special day. Also, our gratitude is expressed specifically to God above, who is the giver of all good things (James 1:17). Finally, we are to be grateful in all circumstances (1 Thess. 5:18). We give thanks in times of bounty and in times of need, because we know our best blessings are not material things that wear out. So Christian, count your blessings on Thanksgiving, but keep counting all year long!
