Joe's Jots

One Word. Today, we begin our One Word series which will carry us through 2017!

This morning, I'm preaching on the first word of the book which is actually "Word". Then starting tomorrow, we'll begin our daily devotional readings in the black One Word books. We'll provide a weekly reading plan in every bulletin to keep you on track (see above). If you still need your devotional book, they are available in the office. Now that the new year has arrived, it's time to begin "Growing in the Knowledge of God!"

ONE WORD

A Resolution. When Jesus said, "Love your neighbor as yourself" (Mark 12:31), He was referring to more than just the people who live on our streets. But he most certainly wasn't excluding those people! I have become convicted that I am not a good neighbor to those in my neighborhood. I am not involved in their lives. I don't know about their struggles, even on a surface level. For instance, I recently learned that a lady across the street from us has been battling cancer. I should have known that a long time ago. I would have known that had I initiated a conversation. I don't even know some of my neighbors' names! I want that to change in 2017. Therefore, one of my resolutions is to simply be a better neighbor. In this new year, I will seek to be more thoughtful and caring to those who live nearby. I want to be sure I love all my neighbors, even those in my neighborhood!

Thank You Notes

Thanks goes to all those who delivered fruit baskets and came to our homes to visit and sing Christmas Carols to each one of us. We enjoyed hearing all the sweet voices.

Thanks so much,
Senior Saints

I want to thank everyone in this congregation who has helped me in any way over the years. I am very thankful for my church family and all the many ways you have cared for me. Please continue to pray for me as I recover from recent surgery at the Willows.

In Christian Love,
Josephine McGee
