The Screwtape Letters. I have been reading The Screwtape Letters by C.S. Lewis. This is an imaginative tale about a chief demon teaching a younger demon how to tempt humans. One of my big takeaways from the book is that the devil and his forces will use any means possible to separate us from our God! Here's one example from the book: "Surely you know that if a man can't be cured of churchgoing, the next best thing is to send him all over the neighborhood looking for the church that 'suits' him until he becomes a taster or connoisseur of churches." In other words, in Lewis's fictional tale, the chief demon says to the junior demon, "If you can't break him of his commitment to church, then just make him so unsatisfied with any church that he never puts roots down anywhere." This accurately captures how the devil really operates, as he prowls around seeking someone to devour (1 Peter 5:8). He doesn't care how he pulls us away from God and the eternal life He offers, just so long as he does! This should remind us that we must remain sober-minded and watchful so we can resist his schemes!
