9 AM Sermon: More and More | 1 Thessalonians 4:1-2
6 PM Preview: Issues Facing the Family: Same-Sex Marriage

Joe's Jots

Family Matters. As we shared last week, we will be focused on the family in 2023! I want to put in writing here some of what I shared in my sermon last week. Marriage and the family originated with God—He created them to bring order to the world and flourishing to people. As I stated, our simple (yet ambitious) goal is that all our families become healthier and more focused on glorifying God in 2023.

To accomplish this goal, we want to (1) understand God's view and purpose of the family. These concepts were his ideas in the first place, so He gets to define what they are. We aim to develop a deeper grasp of his intention in establishing marriage and the family. We also want to (2) strengthen relationships in the families that are part of our church family. We want stronger marriages, better equipped parents, and children of all ages who honor their parents. We plan to host some special events this year to build these relationships. Finally, we want to (3) help foster faith building in the home. One of the ways we plan to accomplish this is with...

...My Family Books. These books include weekday devotionals focused on the family for the entire year. I think they'll be beneficial to everyone in our church family. If you would like one, please sign up in the main lobby by the bulletins. Our church will cover the cost for one per family. If you'd like more than one, please make note of that on the sign-up list and you can cover the cost of any additional books. The last day to sign up is TODAY, January 15! We'll start reading these together in February.

Marriage Retreat. Speaking of building up the family, the Great Smoky Mountain Marriage Retreat is February 15-19. Josh & Kate Mason attend this event every year and would love for you to join them. See them for questions. Also, a full schedule and lodging information can be found at www.smokymountainmarriage.com.
