The Great Bible Reading Challenge. I am thrilled with the positive response from you about reading the Bible in 2019! I truly believe this will be a transformative experience for us all. Begin thinking about when you will complete your readings each day (first thing in the morning, during lunch break, etc.). Making a plan will help you accomplish your goal! If you are taking the challenge and haven't yet signed one of the resolution boards, please do that in the lobby. One-page reading plans will be available in the lobby beginning Sunday, December 16. If you signed up for a journal or Bible, those will also be available beginning that Sunday. Journals are free and you'll only need to pay $15 for the Bibles. Feel free to ask me any questions!

Teaching Rocket,

Part 2. Last January, Michael Whitworth presented a fantastic workshop about how we can become better Bible class teachers and students of the Word. On Saturday, January 26, 2019, he's coming back for the second part! A sign-up list will be available in early January, but for now, plan to join us!

TEACHING ROCKET

Grace and Peace. In our first Corinthian Letters class on Wednesday, I mentioned that Paul begins each of his letters with a greeting of grace and peace. In Greek, "hello" is charein. But Paul uses the word for "grace" instead, which was similar: charis. Why? Because God's grace through Christ had utterly transformed his life. He writes, "By the grace of God, I am what I am" (1 Cor. 15:10). God's grace had so changed him it became his greeting, his "hello."

New Wednesday Classes. Two new adult classes began last Wednesday night: a ladies class taught by Pam Walker & Melinda Huffman, and a class on 2 Corinthians taught by me. Bring the whole family to join us on Wednesdays!

Thank You Notes

Thank you my church family for the cards and hugs when my sister passed away. What a blessing it is to know that people are praying and thinking of you in the time of need.

Blessings to each of you,

Families

The Senior Saints would like to thank all those who were involved in the Thanksgiving meal that was provided for us. We enjoyed our fellowship and especially playing games with the youth group. We are so blessed!

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

2018 has been a very busy year. This year I have preached in 40 different congregations in 14 different states. I have also spoken in two of our Christian schools and at one youth event. There have been 17 baptisms and 209 responses for prayer. To God be praise for any good that has come. Thanks to you for your prayers, concern, and financial support.

Your Brother,
Keith Parker
