Welcome to Worship! October 25, 2020

Today's Sermon: Choosing Contentment Every Day | 1 Tim. 6:6-10

Joe's Jots

Sunday School. Join us for Sunday school after worship this morning! All adults will remain in the auditorium for class. And the adult class will be streamed to overflow rooms. The youth group is meeting in the downstairs fellowship room, and kids are in their normal classrooms (see the back page of this bulletin for room numbers).

Wednesday Nights. On Wednesdays, our children's classes are meeting in their regular rooms and our youth group is meeting in the fellowship room. Adults are in the auditorium for a series called "Living a Life That Matters." The adult class will be streamed to overflow rooms. Here's the remaining schedule for the adult class:

October 28	Living Trustfully	Kevin Caroland
November 4	Living Humbly	Greg Heatherly
November 11	Living Wisely	Howard Kirksey
November 18	Living Generously	Joseph Horton

Jesus Is King. My favorite political sign of this or any campaign season says, "No Matter Who Is President, Jesus Is King!" Election Day is next Tuesday, November 3 and millions of Americans have already voted. I believe voting for our values and for character and for policies that respect the life and dignity of all humans is important. But casting a vote is not the most important thing you'll do in the coming days. The most important service you'll render to the Kingdom of Jesus won't be at the ballot box but in your bedroom as you kneel in prayer, in your kitchen as you prepare a meal for a family in need, in your dining room as you talk to your children about faith, at your place of work or school as you point others to Christ by your devotion, and in your church house as you praise the Father of our Lord Jesus. These are the places where tiny Kingdom seeds are planted, the acts God will use to quietly and gradually extend His reign. What matters most is not choosing the right candidate on Election Day but choosing to serve King Jesus every day. Nations rise and fall but "of His Kingdom there will be no end." No matter who is president, Jesus is and will always be King.

Sunday AM Worship Details

On Sundays, you may continue to sit on any untaped pew. We ask those who arrive first to sit in the middle of the rows. Ushers will help fill in vacant spots before sending folks to overflow seating in the gym. Room 214 is available for families with young children. Room 216 is an overflow room where masks are required. Those sitting in Room 216 will be able to enter and exit through the Vanzant Center lobby.

The Sunday sermon will continue to be posted to YouTube, Facebook, and our website on Sunday afternoons at 4 PM. Sermons air on WCDT every Sunday at 10 AM.

Youth & Family Ministry

Prayer Breakfast for high school students is on Wednesday at 7 AM! Come early for extra visiting! The bus will leave at 7:30 for FCHS.

Sympathy

We extend sympathy to Tammy Jackson on the sudden loss of her father, Larry Crownover. His funeral was held on Friday.

We also extend sympathy to the family of Jean Braseel Davis, former member here, who recently passed away.

Thank You Note

Thank you for the delicious meal that was prepared for the family of Phyllis Bishop. During such a difficult time your kindness meant so much. We appreciate each lady who made time to cook, serve, wash dishes, and clean up for our large family.

In Christian Love,
Doris McCullough
