9 AM Sermon: Rise Up | 1 Corinthians 15:51-54
 6 PM Preview: Grow Session: Living By Faith in Hebrews 11

Joe's Jots

Sermon Series. Our current series deals with "last things," like death & resurrection, the final judgment, and heaven & hell. We'll also be talking about how our future hope should impact our present lifestyle. Martin Luther famously said, "There are two days in my calendar: This day and that Day." In these sermons, we're talking about how "that Day" (the Day when Jesus returns) should impact how we live on "this day." Our aim is to learn to live with the end in mind!

March Madness. Tonight after evening worship, we'll head to the gym to enjoy some basketball games. You can sign up to play on the youth board—all ages can participate! Or you can be like me and just come to watch. Concessions will be available for everyone. Worship with us tonight at 6 PM and stick around for this time of fun & fellowship!

Wednesdays. From March to May on Wednesday nights, we're offering two adult classes. One is a ladies class in Room 214 called "Sanctified: Set Apart for a Purpose! A Study of 1 & 2 Peter." This class, taught by Pam Walker & Melinda Huffman, will examine those encouraging letters to learn how to be "set apart" for God's purposes in an upside-down world. The other class in the Vanzant Lobby is called "Jesus is Better: A Study of Hebrews" taught by me. Join us!

New Testament Reading Plan. Here are the readings this week:

Mon., March 18	Hebrews 12
Tues., March 19	Hebrews 13
Wed., March 20	Galatians 1
Thurs., March 21	Galatians 2
Fri., March 22	Galatians 3

A Note From Keith Parker

So good to have been with you for your All-In-One in early February. Your love and kindness are amazing. Since our day together, I have preached for groups in East TN, Georgia, and Oklahoma. The good Lord continues to open doors for the gospel to be preached. And thanks to you, I can go without a concern for the cost. To God be praised for any good that comes.

My Love, Keith Parker
