Thank You Note

We want to thank the Winchester church for living life with us for the past 9 years. You have watched us grow and bring our boys into the world. We're so thankful for the relationships that have formed in Winchester and those were evident during our goodbye. It was so special reflecting with you on the memories we share together from camp to my cousin Sal and those special tyimes just being together. So many of you have opened your hearts to our family and we will always carry that with us. Please pray for us in this new chapter God is writing! Here's our new address:
