9 AM Sermon: The Perfect Ruler | Jeremiah 23:5-6
PM Preview: We will not meet again this evening.

Joe's Jots

Grow 2024. Last week, we introduced our theme for the year ahead. If you weren't able to be with us, go back and watch the sermon on Facebook or YouTube to hear all about Grow 2024. In the new year and beyond, we want to encourage a culture of growth in our congregation. We want to grow in... (1) our love for the Scriptures, (2) our connections with one another, (3) our understanding of God's will, and (4) our commitment to our young people. Let me follow up on a couple things I mentioned. First, as I shared, we'll be reading through the New Testament in 2024. Reading plans are available for pick up TODAY in the main lobby. We'll also include the weekly readings in the bulletin. I am looking forward to digging into God's Word together! Second, we will begin meeting with our new Sunday school groups on Sunday, January 7. To see your group and the location for your class, check out the rosters on the church family board in the main lobby or in your current classroom. These groups will meet together in January & February and will be taught by the elders. One of the goals of rearranging is to encourage intergenerational relationships in our church family. This is vital to our growth!
