Sermon Series. Our latest series deals with "last things," like death & resurrection, the final judgment, and heaven & hell. We'll also be talking about how our future hope should impact our present lifestyle. Martin Luther famously said, "There are two days in my calendar: This day and that Day." Starting TODAY, we're talking about how "that Day" (the Day when Jesus returns) should impact how we live on "this day." We'll learn to live with the end in mind. I'm looking forward to preaching these important messages!

March & April

Wednesdays. From March to May on Wednesday nights, we'll be offering two adult classes. One will be a ladies class in Room 214 called "Sanctified: Set Apart for a Purpose! A Study of 1 & 2 Peter." This class, taught by Pam Walker & Melinda Huffman, will examine those encouraging letters to learn how to be "set apart" for God's purposes in an upside-down world. The other class in the Vanzant Lobby is called "Jesus is Better: A Study of Hebrews" taught by me. Please sign up for one of these classes on the church family board in the lobby!

New Testament Reading Plan. Here are the readings this week:

Mon., March 4	Hebrews 2
Tues., March 5	Hebrews 3
Wed., March 6	Hebrews 4
Thurs., March 7	Hebrews 5
Fri., March 8	Hebrews 6

Thank You Note

We have been so extremely blessed by your love and we are thankful for the concern you have shown us during Lydia's Papa passing. Your cards, hugs, and tender words will always be remembered.

Thank You,
Ryan & Lydia Barry
Sophia, Liam & Turner

I greatly appreciate the time and effort each and every one of you have done with the amazing prayers and verses for us ladies and children here! All of you are amazing! What a great youth group you have! From my heart and my son's heart, thank you! We read each and every one! God bless you all! You all have a heart of gold.
