Joe's Jots

Mission Trip. A group of 21 of our young people and adults are departing for Rainbow Omega on a mission trip today. Rainbow Omega is a residence for nearly 100 people with developmental disabilities. It is a work that is supported by churches of Christ, including our congregation. This will be the second year in a row that a group from our congregation has traveled there to encourage the residents and serve in various ways around the campus. We'll be having a special prayer for them in worship this morning, but please also remember them in your daily prayers this week! (To learn more about this great work, check out their website at www.rainbowomega.org.)

Sermon Notes. I'm trying something new today. I'm leaving you some room below to take notes from this morning's sermon. If you like having this blank space, let me know and I'll include it here more often!

TODAY'S SERMON
Gains and Losses | Philippians 3:1-11

PM Preview: "Down by the River to Pray" | Acts 16:11-15
Joseph Horton

Birth Announcement

Congratulations to Nick and Lindsey Barry on the birth of their son, Kieran Nicklaus Barry, born on July 8th, 2016, weighing 8 lbs., 8oz., and 21 inches long. Proud siblings are Caleb, Caroline and Kathryn. Proud grandparents are Dennis & Cindy Shannon and Dan & Arlene Barry.

Thank You Note

Brothers & Sisters,
Thank you so much for helping to send us to Natal, Brazil, this summer to share the Gospel. We have very full schedules of one-on-one sessions reading Luke. One of my students read the parable of the sower yesterday, and she told me that she really wants to be good soil but that she worries that she is rocky soil. Please continue to pray for the work here!

Youth Group News

Rainbow Omega: We are meeting at the church building at 12:45 pm this afternoon! Don't be late!

Back-to-School Bash: We will be having a lock-in to celebrate the beginning of the school year. More information will come this week!

Prayer Breakfast: There is a prayer breakfast sign up sheet in the lobby for the fall school semester. If you would be able to provide breakfast for our kids, please find a time that works for you!

Wednesday Night youth class will be in the auditorium upstairs due to our trip to Rainbow Omega!
