Give Thanks. Last Sunday night, I shared a quote from the late G.C. Brewer, writer for the Gospel Advocate and preacher for this congregation a century ago: "To put stress upon a 'plan' and the specific items and steps of that plan may lead to a wrong conclusion. We are saved by a person, not by a plan; we are saved by a Savior, not by a ceremony. Our faith is in that divine personage—that living Lord—and not in items and steps and ordinances. . . We must trust his grace and rely upon his blood." Of course, we must respond to God's gift of salvation in Biblical ways to receive it. But we must not exalt the plan above the Man, Jesus Christ, who saves. Thank you Father for giving us your Son!
