Joe's Jots

All-In-One. Next Sunday, November 11 is our fall All-In-One! As always, invite friends, family members, and neighbors to join us AND bring plenty of food. Craig Evans will be our guest speaker. Craig and his wife Briana have been working with the Spring Hill congregation near Columbia but will soon be moving to the Mt. Juliet congregation near Nashville where Craig will be the preaching minister. Here's the schedule for our All-In-One:

9 AM	Adult Bible Class: The Problem With Being a Hermit
10 AM	Worship: What Does God Want From You?
11:15 AM	Fellowship Meal in the Vanzant Center
12:30 PM	Afternoon Devotional: Which Group Are You In?

New Ministries. The eagle-eyed bulletin reader may have noticed a couple changes in our ministries listed on the left. First, Education has been changed to Spiritual Growth. Why? Our Bible class program is about way more than sharing facts—it's about spiritual transformation through the study of God's Word. Second, Benevolence, Missions, and Evangelism have all been combined into Outreach. This was done because there's so much overlap in these areas of work. Benevolence needs often provide evangelistic opportunities. I'm thankful for all the men leading and serving in all these ministries!

Looking Back. Last Sunday, the 40s/50s class hosted a fellowship meal for our Senior Saints. There was an excellent turnout and it was very encouraging to see these two groups enjoying fellowship together. What a blessing to belong to a multi-generational church family where people love each other and love spending time together. We had our annual Trunk or Treat on Wednesday and we hosted many visiting families from our community. A big thanks to everyone who helped make it another successful event! I love the spirit of service in our church family—as the chili supper was wrapping up, our people sprang into action putting up tables and chairs and cleaning. We are blessed.
