9 AM Sermon: Each One, Reach One | John 1:43-49
6 PM Preview: Guest Speaker: Rob Long, Hope for Haiti's Children

Joe's Jots

Missions Month wraps up today! During October, we have been emphasizing mission work. I will finish a sermon series on missions this morning and we will hear about one more work we support tonight. I pray we will all be inspired to reach more people with the gospel!

A New Wednesday Series is underway which will take us through the end of the year. It's called Gentle & Lowly: The Heart of Christ for Sinners & Sufferers, based on a book with the same title by Dane Ortlund. Join us this Wednesday at 7 PM!

Youth & Family Minister. We're excited that Alex Tucker has been named our new Youth & Family Minister! Alex & Hannah, along with their boys Evan (2) and Billy (6 mos.) will officially begin their work with us on Sunday, November 8. Let's be praying for them as they make this big transition! Pray specifically for safe travels, quick adjustments to our area, and smooth integration into our church family!

Pulpit Minister. Last Sunday, Dan Walker gave us an update on the search for a new Pulpit Minister here. The job description for this position has been posted in various places, including on the front page of our website. On our church Facebook page, a post has been shared about the position with a link to our website. If you haven't already, be sure to share that post on Facebook to help get the word out! Most importantly, we should pray about this process—that God would guide our elders here and send the right man to serve in Winchester.

We Rejoice with Ashley Slayton, daughter of Joel & Sharon, who was baptized into Christ a few weeks ago in Huntsville, where she now lives. Praise God for Ashley's decision to put on Christ in baptism!
