Joe's Jots

Our Wednesday Meals have provided wonderful opportunities for fellowship in 2023. We'll have one more this year—on next Wednesday, December 6—then we'll resume those in January. Be sure to sign up to join us! And speaking of Wednesdays...

The Wednesday Night Series called Praying with Paul will conclude this Wednesday, November 29. On December 6, we'll begin a new series called Wild Transformation based on a book of the same title by Matthew Morine. Matthew is a minister with the Castle Rock Church of Christ in Colorado. Books won't be provided, but feel free to purchase one at this web address: www.hcu.edu/product/wild-transformation-by-matthew-morine/. I'll be teaching most of these sessions. And I believe this series goes well with our theme for 2024...

Our Church Family Theme for 2024 will be introduced on Sunday morning, December 17. Every year we have a special emphasis—we've focused on God's Word, prayer, evangelism, fellowship, and the family in the past. I'm excited to share with you what we'll be focusing on next year. Be sure to join us that Sunday!

The next Common Ground ladies' gathering will be a soup & salad lunch at Pam Walker's home (321 Lakeview Way in Winchester) on Tuesday, December 5 @ noon. Lunch is provided; just bring yourself! Please RSVP in the main lobby. Hope many of you ladies can go!
