Joe's Jots

WCA Special Contribution. Last Sunday, we heard an exciting report from Dan Walker, one of the members of the newly-formed Capital Funds Committee for Winchester Christian Academy. (Also serving on this team are Ryan Barry, Kevin Caroland, Oren Huffman, and Lou Pfister.) They are engaged in a campaign to raise capital funds for WCA and our congregation will have an opportunity to contribute. Next Sunday morning, March 26, a second collection will be taken for WCA. Please be praying and preparing to give to this great work!

Gratitude. I felt a surge of gratitude course through me last Wednesday night. I was sitting in Dan Walker's excellent class on God's providence, knowing that Ryan Barry was teaching another excellent class down the hall. It's a blessing to serve a congregation where I can occasionally take a break from teaching and attend a Bible class. I realize this is not the case everywhere—many ministers I know never get a break from teaching and preaching. But you can't bring up water from an empty well! I'm thankful to be refilling mine this quarter.
