Joe's Jots

All-In-One. Welcome to what we call All-In-One Sunday. We're glad that Keith Parker is here again as our guest speaker. He has joined us for the past several years in February. Brother Parker always blesses us with his powerful, uplifting messages from God's Word. Here's the rundown of events today:

9 AM	Combined Adult Bible Class in the Auditorium
10 AM	Worship in the Auditorium
11:15 AM	Fellowship Meal in the Vanzant Center
12:15 PM	Devotional in the Auditorium

In the afternoon devotional, I'll be talking about "MERCY," our word for the week. And as usual, we will not have an evening service today. Thank you for joining us! We hope you find here a church family that wholeheartedly loves God and loves people.

A Week Without Social Media. Two weeks ago, I fasted from social media from Sunday to Saturday. This was a big deal for me! Though I enjoyed the break, I missed being connected to the joys and struggles of my friends. Social media can be a negative, divisive place, with more than enough fake news and time-wasting posts. At the same time, it's also a place where friends can encourage and pledge to pray for one another. Many in this church family are involved in meaningful ministry on social media. I commend you for this! It's nice to disconnect for a time to rest the mind and heart. But I'm thankful for the important connection that social media, when used in healthy ways, can provide. Truly, it can be a place to rejoice with the rejoicing and weep with the weeping if we let it (Rom. 12:15)!

Next quarter, for the months of March, April, and May, two different classes will be offered. Ryan Barry will be repeating his class on evangelism. We encourage everyone who has not had this class to attend--this will be the last time it will be offered for a while!
