9 AM Sermon: The Temple of His Body | John 2:18-22
 6 PM Preview: Youth Area-Wide Service

Welcome!

Last Sunday, we shared that Mason Mitchell has identified with our church family. We welcome him! He is currently a student at UTC. His contact info will soon be in our church directory app.

Joe's Jots

Family Matters is our theme for 2023! Our goal for this year is that all our families become healthier and more focused on glorifying God in 2023. To help with fostering faith in the home, we will be reading through the My Family devotional book. We will let you know when these are available for pick-up so we can get to reading them together!

Looking Back, Looking Ahead. I want to share a few items from my sermon last Sunday when we reflected back on 2022 and looked ahead to 2023. Last year, 18 folks submitted to Christ in baptism in our church family. Let's pray for even more in 2023! Last year, 11 families identified with our congregation. Let's pray more will come our way in 2023! We had 5 precious little ones born into our church family last year. We're thankful for our children! And you gave over $700 on average above our budget each week last year. Let's pray that generous hearts will continue to give to the Lord's work here. In the budget presentation, Frank shared that we will be supporting the Pleasant Ridge Iglesia de Cristo, a new church plant aimed at reaching out to Spanish-speaking people in our community. This work is well underway. I'm excited we are partnering with this outreach effort!

Marriage Retreat. Speaking of building up the family, the Great Smoky Mountain Marriage Retreat is February 15-19. Josh & Kate Mason attend this event every year and would love for you to join them. See them for questions. Also, a full schedule and lodging information can be found at www.smokymountainmarriage.com.
