Joe's Jots

Sermon Series. I'm wrapping up a three-part sermon series today called "Behold Our God." We've been looking at comparisons the Bible makes to God and what these teach us about his greatness and majesty. I'm glad you're here this morning!

Behold Our God
Sunday Morning Sermon Series

Lord's Supper. Today, we resume a practice that has been on hiatus since March 2020—passing communion and offering trays in our worship assembly. We're changing not because the way we've been taking communion and giving of our means is wrong. The elders simply believe this new/old way is better. I can think of many reasons why. (1) Passing communion trays reminds us of the communal nature of the Lord's Supper—it's an act of worship we do together. (2) It also creates more natural time to reflect on the meaning of the Lord's Supper. (3) Passing offering trays allows our young children to see grown-ups giving to kingdom work, and gives them an opportunity to begin giving as well. (4) Passing trays provides more opportunities for men to lead/serve in worship. I hope and pray that resuming this practice will enrich our worship to the Lord together!

Church Messaging System. The church office had to recently update the system we use to send out emails and texts. If you received a text message from our office number asking if you'd like to receive future messages, please accept! This is from us! Also, if you didn't see the bulletin in your email inbox, check your junk mail folder. We hope to have all these issues resolved soon!

Thank You Notes

Words can't express how much we appreciate all the prayers, cards, and thoughts for mom during her illness, and to us since her death. We are eternally grateful to be a part of such a loving and caring church family, and times like these remind you of just how special these relationships are to you. Mom went through so much but always mentioned the cards that she received from members of our congregation, and was extremely appreciative of your prayers. While we will miss her deeply, we know she is now in the good Lord's hands and no longer in any pain. That provides us with a great sense of comfort, and we thank our Lord and Savior for His sacrifice that made it all possible. Thank you and God Bless each all of you.

In Christian Love,
Joel Slayton and Family

John and I would like to thank you all so very much for the love you have shown us. We appreciate the prayers, calls, texts, cards, and visits. We are so very richly blessed in calling you our church family.

In Christian Love,
John & Linda Brandon
