9 AM Sermon: You Wouldn't Believe Me If I Told You | Habakkuk 1:5-6
 6 PM Preview: Grow Session: Christianity on Trial in Acts 24

Joe's Jots

CYC. A group of 6th-12th graders along with several parents will be headed home from CYC in Pigeon Forge today. Please be prayerful for them! I'm sure they've had a spiritually uplifting weekend together.

New Sermon Series. Have you heard the term "eschatology"? It's a fancy word that refers to the study of "last things," like death & resurrection, the final judgment, and heaven & hell. Our next sermon series will address these "last things." We'll also talk about how our future hope should impact our present life-style. Martin Luther famously said, "There are two days in my calendar: This day and that Day." In this series, starting next Sunday, we'll talk about how "that Day" (the day when Jesus returns) should impact how we live on "this day." We'll learn to live with the end in mind. I'm looking forward to preaching these important messages!

Wednesdays. From March to May on Wednesday nights, we'll be offering two adult classes. One will be a ladies class called "Sanctified: Set Apart for a Purpose! A Study of 1 & 2 Peter." This class, taught by Pam Walker & Melinda Huffman, will examine those encouraging letters to learn how to be "set apart" for God's purposes in an upside-down world. The other class is called "Jesus is Better: A Study of Hebrews" taught by yours truly. Please sign up for one of these classes on the church family board in the lobby!

New Testament Reading Plan. Pick up a reading plan in the lobby! If you want to read with us on the YouVersion Bible App, let me know and I'll send you a link for our group! Here are the readings this week:

Mon., February 26	Acts 25
Tues., February 27	Acts 26
Wed., February 28	Acts 27
Thurs., February 29	Acts 28
Fri., March 1	Hebrews 1
