Joe's Jots

Revive Camp. Our crew of 60+ returned from Camp Ney-a-ti on Friday. There were nearly 140 campers and counselors in all from several congregations: Owl Hollow, Grundy Street in Tullahoma, and Main Street in Manchester. Here's a shot of the Winchester group. If you don't recognize some of these faces, it's because they're visitors invited by our own young people. Sometimes they put us older folks to shame in their willingness to reach out to their friends! As I write this on Thursday morning, there have been 5 baptisms at camp, including one of our own (see the back page). I had the privilege to visit camp on Tuesday along with my family. It was so special to go back and see how our church camp has grown and to witness the great leadership Alex and Alison are providing. Our church family is so blessed to have them and we need to express our gratitude to them often!

Quotable. I heard this quote from a sermon recently, and it has stuck with me: "What one generation tolerates, the next generation will embrace." Generally speaking, successive generations become looser in their thinking. We must be careful what we put up with now, because our children and grandchildren will wind up fully accepting it.

Peru Missions Day

Mitchel and Rachel Routh are a young couple we are supporting as missionaries to Cusco, Peru. This summer, they'll be spending a good bit of time with us in Winchester before they make the big move to South America. To build awareness and excitement about this new work, we will have Peru Missions Day on Sunday, July 23. We'll have a special gathering at 5 PM that day in the Vanzant Center. Stay tuned for more details.

Welcome!

Anne Simmons met with the elders and expressed her desire to identify with this congregation. Anne has been worshipping with us for several months and we warmly welcome her! Her address is listed in the pocket directory.

New Arrival

Congratulations to Ryan and Megan Parton who welcomed a baby boy, Aden James Parton, into the world on June 30. Aden weighed 7 lbs. 4 oz. and was 18.5 inches long.

Praise God for his safe delivery and healthy baby!

Baptized Into Christ

We rejoice with Kristoffer Riibe who was baptized at Camp Ney-a-ti last week. Kristoffer is an exchange student from Norway who has been living with Kyle and Jodi Stewart. We're thrilled to have a new brother in Christ!
