INTRODUCING

ONE WORD

One Word. Next Sunday, January 1, I'll preach on the first word in the One Word devotional book. Then on Monday, January 2, all of us will begin our daily readings about that word. Today is the final Sunday that books will be available in the lobby so be sure to pick yours up! And once you have your book, be sure to keep up with it throughout the year. I'm confident that reading through this book as a congregation will be a great blessing to us as we aim to "Grow in the Knowledge of God" in 2017!

Sunday School Classes. Last Sunday night, the 20s/College class had a Christmas party at our place. This is our newest Sunday school class serving the youngest adults in our church family. All of our 7 Sunday school groups had Christmas parties over the past month, and all of them plan additional activities throughout the year. Sunday school classes remain the best way for members of our congregation to get involved with other Christians in their stage of life. Gary Bradley, preacher at the Mayfair church in Huntsville, routinely tells that congregation, "If you're not in a Sunday school class, we can't minister to you." Truly, involvement in Sunday school in our congregation will help your needs to be met. We've seen a significant uptick in our Sunday school attendance in 2016—I hope that continues in 2017!
